

Notes:

Butterfly Weekend—April 2nd and 3rd. Please return completed butterflies to any Mass this weekend.

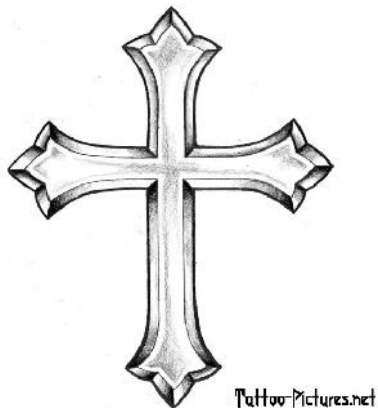

Pew Seating: Six people (including First Communicant) allowed in reserved pew for ceremonies. There is NO seat saving! Ask family and friends to arrive early for general seating!

Special Needs Seating: A staff member will be available to take requests for special needs seating during each rehearsal. We will do our best to accommodate all requests.

Dress Code: Girls usually wear a white dress. A veil or flowers may be worn on the head. A corsage on the dress or wrist may be worn. Children are not to carry anything into the church as they process in with prayerful hands (i.e. no gloves). Boys usually wear a suit, or sport jacket and pants, with shirt and tie. Boutonnieres may be worn. Jeans or sneakers are not appropriate.

We have suits, dresses, and some shoes available in the Religious Education Office. Please feel free to use them!

IMPORTANT: To respect the solemnity of the Sacrament, NO pictures or videotaping will be allowed during the ceremony. Thank you for understanding. DVDs of each ceremony and family portraits of your child receiving Communion will be available at a reasonable cost. Please see enclosed order forms.
